Mr. Baruch Litvin
1925 Washington Avenue
Miami Beach, Florida

Dear Mr. Litvin:

It was a pleasure to hear from you and learn that you and your family are all well.

I have had the opportunity, since seeing you last, to read through parts of your excellent work, "Jewish Identity," and I must say that it certainly is a worthwhile work and one that deserved publication and the effort you put into it.

I do not believe myself competent to offer you any advice as to whether it should be printed in pocketbook edition. My information is that pocketbook editions normally sell very well, but I am quite naive about the financial complications.

I am asking my secretary to send you several of the more recent Bulletins, so that you can "keep in contact."

Please give my very fondest regards to Mrs. Litvin and members of the family.

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
