

Norman Lamm
PRESIDENT

4/14/62

Dear Chaim:

It was a pleasure getting to know you and your wife in Belgium. It would be good to see each other - even in America!

I enclose the article I mentioned to you. This appeared before the "Mathematics Teacher" was published, & hence is not mentioned. However, the analogous idea is central to my theme, namely, that the very meaninglessness of the skill is its meaning - the conceptual measurement of the morally immeasurable, as it were.

Very truly yours in all good wishes to the both of you for resistance.

Cordell
