Dear Herbert:

Pursuant to the last item in the letter of appointment signed by you, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Yeshiva University, on November 25, 1977, I hereby give you written notice of my intention to seek re-appointment for another term of office as President when my present term expires on August 31, 1979.

It has been a pleasure working with you and, together, confronting and seeking to master the challenges faced by the University. I pray that we shall be able to continue these cooperative efforts on behalf of Yeshiva for many years to come.

Warmest regards to your wife.

Cordially yours,
