Dear Norman:

I'm sorry I wasn't in when you returned my call yesterday.

I phoned you because I am running a news paragraph in WORLD OVER on the Union's decision to send visiting rabbis to India. Since you will be the first incumbent, it struck me that you might be interested in serving as a free lance observer for WORLD OVER. One article, or several short ones on various aspects of Jewish life in India would make fascinating material for WORLD OVER. I do not mean an overall piece on the Bene Israel: we^{ve} had that. I am thinking about the things which only an on-the-scene participant could describe.

I am as much concerned about photos as I am about the text. Good, glossy photographs of Jewish interest-- faces, places, and things--would be very much in order.

I enclose a recent issue of WORLD OVER in case you haven't seen it lately, and I hope that you will find the proposal attractive.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely yours

Dr. Morris Epstein
