Dear Rabbi Lamm,

Thank you for your letter.

I am glad to hear that your new book: Faith and Doubt is now published and that it contains updated forms of the essays on privacy and self incrimination.

Would you please ask your publisher to send me a review copy. I review books frequently for Commonweal, and for many journals within the Jewish community here and in Israel, and will be happy to do what I can to call the work to the attention of a larger audience.

I look forward to seeing the book.

I am With every good wish for briyut haguf vihanefesh,

Sincerely yours,
