Rabbi Norman Lamm
27 W. 86th Street
New York 24, N. Y.

Dear Rabbi Lamm:

I am presently preparing a book on funeral orations and eulogies for publication. Its purpose will be to serve as a cross-reference for various ideas when the Rabbi is called upon to deliver a eulogy on short notice.

I would appreciate your sending me, if at all possible, one or two of your talks on this theme. I am certain that your prominence, eminent personality and beautiful oration will enhance the stature of this publication. It will be of great service to our Rabbinic colleagues.

The sole contributors to this volume will be members of the Orthodox Rabbinate.

Thanking you most sincerely for your prompt co-operation, I am

Yours gratefully,

C. Joseph Teichman, Rabbi
