Dear Shubert:

My regular secretary is on vacation and I therefore find it impossible to locate Sally Lewis.

I know that she and her son Aaron attend your synagogue and I wonder if you could do me the favor of offering them my warmest congratulations at his forthcoming marriage.

I don't know the young lady, but from the nature of the invitation I received with the full Hebrew, traditional text, I can well imagine that Aaron has vindicated his mother's most cherished prayers and fondest hopes. I am genuinely pleased for both of them. Please convey to them my warmest good wishes for

Fondest regards to your wife,

Cordially yours,
