Dear Ruth-Lamm: GWS

The good news of your election to the presidency of G.U. was here in the papers on Thursday.
I hasten to extend to you my warmest congratulations. May I pray for you to see the fulfilment of all your hopes and aspirations in this tremendous task which the G.U. nation has bestowed upon you. As to the human agents, finally and for once: the best man (and, in fact, the only man) was chosen. I shudder thinking of certain alternatives! Reciprocally, there is no other task in American Jewry^{as}/_{worthy} of your superb spiritual and intellectual endowments! I am happy to join your many well-wishers, from ^{הנהגת} ^{הקהל} ^{בירוקלין}, and to conclude ^{הנהגת} ^{הקהל} ^{בירוקלין}, ^{הנהגת} ^{הקהל} ^{בירוקלין}
