Dear Mrs. Berkowitz:

Enclosed please find the corrected galley of my article for Jewish Parent.

I hope you will keep in mind my request for about 100 reprints or more if possible.

Normally, I prefer my rabbinic title to my academic one. However, if I am introduced to readers only as a faculty member at Yeshiva University, I prefer that I be called Rabbi Lamm; and conversely, if I am introduced only as occupying a pulpit, then I prefer the title Dr. Norman Lamm. Since you have chosen to give my synagogue affiliation, I prefer the title Dr.

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
