Dear Norman:

My people are still under the impact of the masterfull presentation you gave on Sunday morning on the subject of Mechitzah.

Knowing of the uncertainty on the part of so many regarding this practice, the receptivity far exceeded any of my expectations. In fact, they all left with a feeling of strength and conviction that only we are truly on the right path and the others are totally wrong.

In fact, some of them expressed the hope that you would have an opportunity to make these presentations to non-Orthodox audiences, for they are certain that your persuasiveness could not but affect them, as they, themselves are convinced of the correctness of your position.

As for me, it was likewise a tremendous ^{7/5/59} for it convinced me that with the proper approach, so many of the problems we face within Orthodoxy might be more readily resolved.

I am deeply grateful for your willingness to come and address the group, and I am likewise greatly appreciative of your splendid cooperation.

With best personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

RABBI SOLOMON FREILICH
