Dear Marvin:

Thank you very much for the clippings of your two reviews from "Commentary."

Not only am I happy to see that stylistically and content-wise, you are up to par, but I am even more delighted by the fact that you so resoundingly confirm my various opinions, prejudices, and biases!

I hope your problem, about which you called me, has been successfully resolved with the assistance of the Beth Din.

I enclosed two reprints in which you may be vaguely interested.

My fondest regards to June and the children.

Sincerely,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
