Calcutta, India

Dear Ellis:

I have just written to your mother regarding the visit of Sally and Aaron at our home. She will give you the details.

I am curious as to why things seem to have stopped in mid-air in Calcutta with regard to the formation of a new Beth Din and affiliation with the Union. I had been optimistic when I left. Has anything untoward occurred? Is there any way in which I can help?

I know that you are a busy man but I do pray that you will take the time to keep me informed of the major events.

With all my fondest regards and hopes that we may be seeing each other again in the near future,

Cordially yours,

Rabbi Norman Lamm
