Rabbi Lamm,

NEW YORK. N.Y. 10024,

Dear Rabbi Lamm,

After some discussion I have decided against publishing your speech that we discussed in our recent telephone conversation. I understand - again from the bush telegraph - that there may be made available in Melbourne, the collected series of your talks made on your recent visit.

One trust that you arrived home safely perhaps a little refreshed by your experiences in this, the "last frontier".

With thanks for your courtesy and thoughts. כנימה ונימה יאמר

Yours sincerely,

M. Singer.
