Dear Colleague:

It has been suggested that it might be worthwhile publishing, for our synagogues' use, a set of five volumes, consisting of the Hertz Siddur and Bible. Each volume would consist of a different Humash, followed by the Sabbath morning section of the Hertz Siddur.

Even before checking into the expenses involved, I would like to have your reactions as to the advisability and feasibility of this project.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
