Dear Rabbi Lamm:

I have just completed reading your excellent article on "TRADITION," and I want to compliment you on the very fine presentation of a very difficult problem.

I would suggest that the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations reprint this article in brochure form and make it available to its affiliated congregations, as well as the public.

I consider this one of the finest expositions on the problem of mixed pews. At the same time, I want to compliment you on the high standard of scholarship and the varied material that appears in "TRADITION."

With best personal wishes, I remain,

Sincerely,

Rabbi Meyer J. Strassfeld
