Dear Rabbi

I would like to have you know that I read your article last night in the Brai Buth magazine on the Dialogue and agree with you so heartily that I felt that I should let you know my feelings.

What annoys me particularly as it does you, is the fact that our German Jews like Judge Proskauer either through ignorance or deliberately are anxious and ready to give the Gentile world credit for the fine moral teachings which our prophets gave to the world.

Its the old story of Shitlanut which we have to constantly battle against.

May you have the strength and vigor to keep up the good fight for many years.

I am with kindest regards

Sincerely

Max Borgenicht

P.S. I am sure you wont mind my calling Rabbi Alan Miller's attention to your article
