Dear Normie,

I appreciated your sending me a copy of "Hedge of Bones". It sounded pretty funny for a Conservative Rabbi. I was impressed, first, with the fact that you made this effort and, secondly, by the the literary and lucid presentation of ideas not ~~very~~ ordinarily susceptible to rational and scholastic formulation. I do have some $1500 but I don't think them to be significant enough to impede second and third paintings.
$1000" on this and your recently acquired doctorate.

Sincerely,
Teddy
