Rabbi Norman Lamm,
27 West 86th Street,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Norman: KG Fe

Lawrence Kaplan, another student in our Shimush program, is most eager to come under your tutelage. It would appear that greatness carries with it such burdens and responsibilities.

I do hate to burden you so and I know that it is difficult to find a place for these students for Shabbos, but since there is no substitute for you in the mind of this young man (and in the minds of many others) would you please accept him.

Lawrence Kaplan, as you will recall, is one of our stars of our College Bowl Program. He hails from Far Rockaway and is seriously considering a career in the rabbinate, in Chinuch or possibly teaching on a higher level. Since your rabbinate represents all of these areas, we feel it would be a most meaningful experience for him. Please treat this in the same manner as the other student and I am enclosing the necessary materials for our records.

With warmest personal regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Herbert C. Dobrinsky
