Dear Milton:

Many thanks for sending me Frankl's "Man's Search for Meaning" which I just received this morning.

I hope to read it carefully, and return it to you when I am done.

If you are in a hurry to have it returned, please let me know. Otherwise I would like to take my time with it, especially in light of the review that you wrote.

It was really a pleasure seeing you and Ruth at the wedding in Springfield, and I hope that the two of you and your daughter will have a year of health and happiness, and of great progress on all fronts. Mindy sends her best.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
