Dear Rabbi Lamm,
Shalom.

I really do not know what you would think of me for not replying to your kind letter of March 31, 1971. Kindly excuse me and accept my apology for this abnormal delay which is due to my sickness.

I was down with severe attack of chronic Bronchitis, which weakened me a lot. I am now under better and I am trying to push through all my pending letters. I am still under doctor's treatment. Due to this attack it seems that my heart is become weak. Doctor has prescribed me "Herzolan" heart tonic and besides this I have to take Sedonal Tablets one in the morning & one in the evening. I have to go again for a check to doctor on 26th July. I am unable to walk round or exert myself. I have curtailed my activities due to my sickness. Well God is merciful. I have full faith in EL ELOHAI ISRAEL, Lord God of Israel. He will look after me, & have His Mercy on me. Amen. During previous I enjoyed my prayer through
