Dear Rabbi Lamm, RL

With further reference to our recent meeting, I wish to remind you about your generous past contribution of $225 (also a $15 donation) received towards the end of 1972.

We certainly hope that it will be possible for you to again arrange such a donation, which can be sent to our above listed Brooklyn office.

With best regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

M. Rose

Dear R. M. Rose:

I regret that I cannot now will this year as I did last year, when Mr. Manfred Sandberg was active in helping me solicit contributions. Perhaps you can prevail upon him to do so again (he is related to Rabbi Horowitz).
Since Rabbi Horowitz also, I understand, has contributed $225.

Sincerely
