

7. what can I report to you as general & yet clearest impression?

- that there is a new spirit & new hunger in this land.

~~A spirit of~~ A hunger for stable goals & higher purposes.

Orthodox Judaism is coming into its own at unexpected pace

a) building synagogues, and increase quant. & quality membership

b) A preutilized interest in Torah purse which we Rabbis felt we were lax in recognizing & exploiting.

c) A clear failing in this country that people can live in the framework of American life and still be good, observing, practicing, genuine Jews.

8- Read P. COLN - that the chosen of Israelites had vision of g-d, + this vision lifted them, they were not destroyed in account of this rare experience of holiness.

at the rare experience of Holland.

→ every Jew is me $\therefore$ Jew is ~~not~~ noble identity.

→ (2) III of II - They dare not be harassed neither by discouragement by the critics of the ^{irreligious} Left who dare to ridicule, or by the sin of omission of the spiritual leadership who dare not sit by idly & fail to exploit their renewed interest

→ 1st B'nai B'rith Mission - for our people beginning to learn that even ~~to~~ in course of 1st B'nai B'rith, regular routine of society in which we live, in framework life in this blessed land, it is possible to have a vision of God, an experience of love for Torah, a life lived in the high principles of authentic Judaism.
