

My dear Rabbi Lamm:

NOTICE TO PUBLISHER OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Publisher: Please change the address on my copies of your publication
 I came from Israel. Be good enough put me on the mail list of your weekly BULLETIN, and let

From: me mail some of your 51823, but mainly all of "JEWISH MEANINGS". Thank you in advance.
 (Street Number, Apartment Number, Post Office Box Number, or R. F. D. Number)

Dr. Abr. A. Kertes, Rabbi of Congr. B'nai Isaac
 202 Kline St. & Second Ave. NORTH
 (Show any numbers or dates included in address on copies for identification)

To: ABERDEEN, South Dakota.

(New Address—Street and No., Apartment No., Post Office Box No., or R. F. D. and Box No.)

(City)

(Zone Number)

(State)

Signature:

Date:

Dr. Abr. A. Kertes, Rabbi, c/o Congr. B'nai Isaac
202 Kline St. North, ABERDEEN, South Dakota.

IMPORTANT: Please use this card immediately to notify the publisher of this publication of your change in address, as the Post Office is required by law to return to the publisher copies of this publication sent to your former address after five weeks or not less than two issues. Fill in your complete old address as it appears on the copy of the publication herewith, including all dates and numbers shown as part of the address, or cut off the address label and paste it in that space; then give your new address, affix a one-cent stamp and promptly mail the card to the publisher at the Post Office shown in the publication. Your cooperation will be most helpful and greatly appreciated.

c16-57991-3

Rabbi Norman Lamm

(Name of Magazine or Newspaper)

347 West 34. St.

(WESTSIDE JEWISH CENTER)

New York, City.

(Street and Number)

Rabbi Norman Lamm

(Post Office)

347 W 34 St.

(Zone Number)

(State)

New York City.