

Dear Rabbi,

Belatedly, but nonetheless sincerely, we want you to know of our deep appreciation for sending us your sermons. The sermon given as a Tribute to J. F. Kennedy was fantastic and it will be kept and reread by us many times.

We are all well here - Mark is away at school - and should be leaving in September - Sandy and I feel that we are almost reverting to our original status of aloneness - a cycle almost complete. It does seem funny when one stops to think of it.

Though I don't have the time to write as often as I would like, it does not mean you and Mandy are not thought of most often - and fondly!
We give our love to Mandy and your children who must be quite grown now - and keep a bit for yourself of course!

Keep sending these copies - we look forward to them.

Fondly
Yoda
