

To Whom It May Concern:

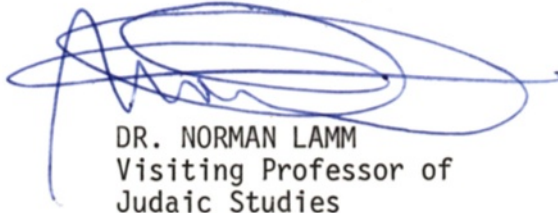

████████████████████ has been my student at Brooklyn College, and has done research for me in the course of this time.

I consider her one of the finest students I ever had. She has a superb fund of knowledge, a sharp intellect, and a healthy intellectual curiosity.

I have found her to be especially proficient in research. The papers she has done under me have been of the highest quality.

I unhesitatingly recommend her to the graduate school of her choice.

Sincerely yours,
