

February 11, 1964

Dear Florence:

I just received the copies of the Rabbinical Council Record, for which I thank you. By now my wife has probably called you with a number of messages, so you know that I received your first letter about poor Mr. Mendelsohn.

I hoped all is well with you, and that the office work is going smoothly. The week before I left, I wrote a letter to one of the teachers at the Yeshivah Kerem Be'Yavneh in Israel. Please write me at once, letting me know his name.

ordered
4/20
Please call Feldheim and ask him to send a copy of the recently published biography of Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Spector to Mr. & Mrs. J. ~~Mr~~ Milne, The White House, Venus St., Birdhaven, Johannesburg. It should be inscribed, "With the ~~XXXX~~ Compliments of R.N.L." Also ask him to obtain, for me personally, a copy of Miller's "Rejoice O Youth," published by Balshon Press. Then, please write to England, Jewish Marriage Education Council, 529b Finchley Rd., London NW3, asking for their booklets on Jewish marriage.

Please give my regards to your husband. Has Fay left yet? If not, remember me to her. Also, tell Pauline I'm deeply grateful for the assistance to my mother-in-law with the new apartment.

Please keep well, and keep me informed of anything and everything.

Cordially,

N.L.