Dear friend,

Somewhere I once remember reading a sermon of yours on the text: "East of Eden" but I cannot remember just where. If you can locate the sermon and zerox it for me I will be most grateful.

What reminded me of it was seeing a reference to it in your address to the conference of synagogues in "Panim El Panim". It is a fine address. A hearty yasher koach to you.

By seperate mail I send a dvar torah to you in exchange.

We really ought to get together sometime to talk about matters of mutual concern. Meantime with every good wish for briyut haguf vihanefesh, I am

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi Jack Riemer
