Dear Mrs. Green:

I checked into the question you asked me about whether an electric oven has to be covered on Shabbat.

I suggest that you do keep it covered, in the same way as you would a gas oven. The problem was already discussed by one of the greatest authorities of our generation, the Rik 150, and his decision was the one I just gave you.

It was wonderful seeing you at the Mizrahi Women Luncheon. Best regards.

Cordially,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
