Rabbi Lamm

New York

Dear Rabbi Lamm:

Many evenings are passed in the vacuum of vapidty, and so when one finds an evening filled with so much human material (which you so aptly presented Monday evening) one can count the evening well spent; no not well spent, but time enriched in the continued weaving of themosaic pattern of our people.

Your talent as a speaker does not need an accolade from us, rarely have we heard a speaker encompass as much as you did in the short time allotted to you, so much information garnered about a legendary fragment of our people.

This letter is being written because of the impact your revelations had upon us. Your compassion, sensivity, and insight to the needs of these people will, we are sure give them hope for their future, in the sea of indifference which until now seemed to engulf them.

Miss Mae and I do not know what plans you have to help this this group. However, we would like to make our little contribution toward the payment of teacher (for the coming year) for these our people, who are trying so desperately to rise above their unfortunate environment.

With warmest personal regards to your charming family, and with special affectionate greetings to Chye, we remain

Cordially yours,
