Dear Lenny:

I just received your letter of November 15.

Regarding my problems, I will write to you separately, although I believe I recently gave you more information. At any rate, I appreciate the details and the frankness of your report.

What I am writing about now is in fulfillment of your request for an immediate answer regarding a psychiatrist for the young lady you described.

My best advice is to call Menachem Brayer who is now in Jerusalem at Rechov Hapalmach 12. He knows the field in New York far better than I do, and he can best advise you.

Best to Resalie, Tirtza, and Ezra. I hope to be writing to you shortly.

Cordially,

RABBI-NORMAN LAMM
