

Rabbi Norman Lamm.

Dear Sir:

Having read about your sermon in the N.Y.T. Times. I couldn't help but think its too bad you don't have the gift of "Wisdom". Than you might choose better material for your sermon, other than calling for "Revolution". This is so typical of your people, and then your always crying for mercy, saying your persecuted. The text in our church was the "Feast of the Holy Family" Teaching us to work, play, & live in peace for the honor of God the Father. You say "Eli, Eli." means seeking God's guidance, Well people work on T.V. and in Night Clubs, and as God is everywhere, Then "Eli. Eli." & "Silent Night" belongs there. "Blessed are the clean of heart" and they can be found everywhere, even in Night Clubs. When our Lord & Saviour Jesus Christ, chose the Apostles & Disciples, He Commanded them "Go into the whole World and preach the Gospel, to every Creature." Now this is just what "Bishop Fulton J. Sheehan" is doing, and since T.V. has to be paid for, he only suggests buying Admiral, and I think "Admiral" showed good judgement, sponsoring such a worth while program, rather than some suggestive comedian. Why don't you come out of your shell & try to compete with him. As for Mr Kaufman, well let God be the judge. If Ethel & Julius Rosenberg sang "Eli Eli" while working, they wouldn't be where they are to-day.

Who could be more commercial than than a Jew, Eli Eli doesn't go any farther than the Synagogue, with a lot of them. The good, honorable Jews (& I know many of them) haven't been able to cover up for them.
With the help of God, soon every Jew on the face of the earth will sing "Silent Night. Holy night"
