Rabbi Norman Lauman
West Side Jewish Center
347 West 34th St.
New York N.Y.

My dear Rabbi Lauman;

May I presume
to thank you for the remarks in your sermon which are enclosed contained in the enclosed article from the N.Y. Times?
You must have expressed the point of view of many resentful and inarticulate people, of whom I am one. It may interest you to know that I am a Protestant.

Yours sincerely,

(Don. H. H.)
