My dear Norman:

I am writing to you because I do not know to whom else to write. Forgive me, therefore, for troubling you.

I would like to get ten copies of your book entitled "The Hedge of Roses." I want to distribute them among couples that I know. Would you tell me how I can obtain that, or can you take care of it yourself? Naturally, I want to be billed for those books.

Thank you for your attention and all good wishes always.

Very cordially yours,

Joseph H. Lookstein
