Dear Nochum: יג

I chanced upon your pamphlet Rav Kook: Man of Faith and Vision, published by the Jewish National Fund. It reads beautifully and covers the highlights of his life and thought.

I regret only the omission of his views on Kodesh Vechol discussed so excellently in your article in the Leo Jung Jubilee Volume. But, in a work designed principally for the uninitiated laymen, this, needless to say, is a minor caveat.

I understand you are issuing a pamphlet on the "Jewish Concept of Marriage." If possible, let me have a copy on publication.

I trust all is well.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

מנחם
