Rabbi N. Lamm,
The Jewish Center,
131 West 86th Street,
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10024.

My Dear Rabbi Lamm, CLP

When I received a copy of Hillel Davis's letter to Mr. Leible Wolf, I got very worried and wrote to him as per enclosed copy.

Your great success here was due to the fact that any personal demands which you put to your audiences came towards the end of your stay here rather than at the beginning and I'm sure you can convince the team to follow a similar approach.

At the moment, we appear to be making good progress with the programme. I'm trying not to load anybody and will do my utmost to help things along.

Naturally, since Rabbi and Mrs. Berman are arriving early, they will carry a fair amount of responsibilities on their shoulders and I could visualise that they may possibly be excused from the integration weekend or from the first couple of days of the seminar. Possibly I shall mention it to them today on the telephone. I spoke to Rabbi Berman as he wants to attend the integration weekend.

Kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

H.A. BACHRACH.
