Dear Elie:

It was a pleasure spending time with you during the Comet wedding.

If you remember, I talked with you about the Sephardi
Yeshiva which is doing more for Russian Jewish children than all others combined.

I thought you might find it of interest to glance at the enclosed correspondence. You need not return it to me.

Warmest regards to your wife.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
