Dear Moe:

I did not want to call you personally about the Indian situation, as you had requested of me, until you read the enclosed letter, as well as the photocopy of Jhirad's letter of the same date to Dr. Weiss, which the latter is sending to you.

I think that the situation is extremely delicate, and threatens to deteriorate unless someone with a strong hand is present on the spot when the Israeli Rabbis arrive.

I am not going to answer this letter until you have called me and we shall come to some decision.

Please don't hesitate.

Sincerely,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
