

Privacy Policy

So what are we going to do with your data?

1. We take your privacy seriously!

We always try very hard to keep your data very secure and we will never hand out your information to any third party.

2. What happens to my car's information?

CarFirst resells vehicles to its trusted partners and to sell a car some information of the original owner(s) has to be shared with the eventual buyers. Your contact information will however not be handed out and if needed, CarFirst agents will contact you in the future!

3. Will CarFirst contact me in the future?

CarFirst may at time to time contact you with marketing offers and company information. If you wish to no longer be contacted we would be very sad, but will appreciate it and remove your contact details from our mailing list.
