Discussion Questions

Question 1: If anyone walked into LIFE Group tonight and claimed about themselves what Jesus did in John 11:25 what you're your reaction be?

What would have to happen to make that statement sound reasonable?

Question 2: What are some of the things you have leaned or experienced that have brought you to the place to believe that Jesus was who He said He was?

Question 3:

Christianity, if false, is of no importance, and if true, of infinite importance. The only thing it cannot be is moderately important. - C.S Lewis

In what ways are you treating your faith as infinitely important, and in what ways are you treating your faith as moderately important?

[tithing, speech, interacting with others, how you spend time]

Question 4: Break into groups of 2-3 and ask:

Is there a specific action I can take this week to grow in my "moderately" important area?

Pray together and create a plan to hold each other accountable this week.
