THERE'S MORE ROOM

Chapter 11

I used to think I needed an invitation to get into most places, but now I know I'm already invited.

1. If "life is like a sweepstakes where you must be present to win," what does present look like to you? How does one become fully engaged with Jesus?
2. Has "the Christian life" ever felt like the set of National Treasure 2 to you? Or have you ever felt like an outsider? What might Jesus do about this?
3. Discuss a time when you received a surprise invitation you were glad you took. What about one you regret rejecting?
4. Is "there more room" in your church? In your life? How can more space be made for those Jesus would have included?
5. Have you ever experienced the disappearance of an obstacle after accepting an invitation from God? If so, how can that spur you on?
