

Everything is Cancelled Discussion Questions

Getting Started:

- How have you been filling your time now that everything is cancelled?
- What's something that's been cancelled that you are disappointed about? How are you responding to this disappointment?

Getting Personal:

- Have you taken time to pray How do you tell God you are disappointed? What it look like for you to tell God about these disappointments?
- Have you ever prayed about something and it didn't happen, but later you realized it worked out better than what you originally prayed for? What about time it didn't seem to work out later? How did you respond?
- Have you ever felt God was absent when he wasn't answering your prayers? What was that moment like?
- Why do you think God's silence is an invitation to surrender to Him?

Getting Practical:

- How do you lean into God in a time of disappointment and when it seems like God isn't answering our prayers?
- What does it mean to surrender to God? What does it look like to surrender to God?
- How can you trust God even when we don't what will happen next?

Trusting God when He is Silent Ideas:

Write down all the fears, questions and anything else you need to tell God about. After writing it all down, imagine handing over all of it to God and God taking it out of your hands. 1 Peter 5:7 'Cast your anxieties on the Lord for He cares for you'

Share all you can with God and end your prayer by saying: 'God, may your will be done.'

Take a few minutes to pray now.
