 - v. Beginning with the sixth accumulated foul, additional time is allowed to take a direct free kick at the end of each half or at the end of each period of extra time
2. If extra time is played, accumulated fouls from the second period continue to accumulate during extra time.

d. Discipline

- i. Discipline will be at the discretion of the official. Certain actions will be cause for immediate cards and ejections.
 1. Fighting will result in an immediate red for all parties involved.
 2. Being issued a second yellow card will result in a red card being shown.
 3. Players who have been issued a red card are required to leave the area of play, not just the field. (e.g If the game is in a stadium, the player is required to leave the stadium.)
- ii. Card accumulation, suspensions and fines will be handled as follows:
 1. If a player accumulates 5 yellow cards in the first 10 games they will be suspended for 1 regular season game. Cards do not accumulate during playoffs.
 - a. There will be no fine for accumulation.
 - b. Accumulation suspensions will not carry over into playoffs.
 2. If a player is shown 2 yellows during a single game they will be issued a red card and are suspended for the remainder of that game. Their team will also be unable to replace the player.

- a. A team can only be reduced to 3 players. If they are reduced below 3 players, the game is ended and a forfeit by that team is recorded.
 - b. There is no fine for a red card that is the result of a second yellow. There is also mandatory suspension for a future game.
 - i. This is at the referee's discretion as well as the disciplinary board. If the second yellow is for a violent, or bodily fluid based offense additional suspensions could apply.
3. If a straight red is shown to a player they will be required to leave the field of play and the area immediately. Their team will be required to play down a player. They will automatically receive a minimum 1 game suspension. If the red card is issued for violent conduct the following fines and suspensions apply.
- a. All fines, suspensions and bans go through a disciplinary panel that include, the officials of the game, the assigner, the commissioner for the division, head of communications and the vice president and president of the league. We take violent, racism, and hateful speech offenses very seriously.
 - i. Red cards issued for violence, racism or hateful speech will follow the following discipline structure.
 - 1. First offense will be a fine of $100 and a minimum 2 game suspension.
 - 2. Second offense will be a fine of $200 and a minimum 4 game suspension.
 - 3. Third offense will be a fine of $300 and a minimum suspension of 1 season with a maximum penalty of lifetime ban.
 - ii. Red cards issued for reckless or dangerous play will be assessed the following discipline structure.
 - 1. First offense - one game suspension, no fine.
 - 2. Second offense - minimum 1 game suspension, no fine.

3. Third offense - minimum 2 game suspension, $100.00 fine.

f. Suspensions

- i. A player who is issued a red card will be suspended immediately from participation in the league the card was issued from. They must serve their suspension before being allowed to participate in any games for the league the suspension was issued from.
 1. If a Primera player receives a red card suspension they may not play in a different division while suspended.
- ii. A player with an appeal for a red card will have the following options.
 1. If the appeal isn't met with a verdict within the 5 day window, the player may play under the knowledge they could still be suspended for a future game.
- iii. A suspended player who is found to be playing while under suspension will be assessed the following penalties.
 1. First Offense - an additional 1 game suspension.
 2. Second Offense - a minimum of an additional 2 games to a maximum of an additional 5 games.

3. Third offense - Minimum of 5 additional games up to a full season.
- iv. A player will not be able to play after being suspended if there is an outstanding fine for their card.

6. Kick-Ins and Kick off

a. Kick-ins

- i. Will be used to restart play in the following situations. They must be taken within 4 seconds. If there is a failure to play the ball within 4 seconds the opposing team receives control of the ball.
 1. A ball goes out of bounds on either touchline.
 - a. The ball must be played within 10 inches of where the ball left the field of play.
 2. A ball goes out of bounds on either endline for a goal kick.
 3. A ball goes out of bounds on either endline for a corner kick.
 - a. If the ball isn't played in 4 seconds, the ball is given to the opposing team for a goal kick.
- ii. If the ball hits the ceiling while in play, the game is restarted with a kick-in taken by the opponents of the team that last touched the ball. The kick-in is taken from the point on the touch line nearest to the place on the ground above which the ball hit the ceiling

b. Kick Off

- i. All players must be within their defensive half
- ii. Ball must be stationary
- iii. Game is started at the referee's whistle.
- iv. Ball can be played in any direction.
- v. A goal may not be scored directly off the kick-off.

7. Goalkeepers

a. Kick-in taken by the goalkeeper

- i. If the ball is in play and the goalkeeper deliberately handles the ball before it has touched another player:
 1. a direct free kick is awarded to the opposing team if the infringement occurred outside the goalkeeper's penalty area, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred
 2. an indirect free kick is awarded to the opposing team if the infringement occurred inside the goalkeeper's penalty area, to be taken from the penalty area line at the point nearest to where the infringement occurred
- ii. Each time that a team's goalkeeper is in possession of the ball while it is in play and in his own half of the pitch, one of the referees must visibly perform the four-second count.
- iii. Goalkeeper releasing the ball
 1. One of the referees must take a position in line with the edge of the penalty area and check that the goalkeeper does not touch the ball with his hands outside the penalty area, while also timing the number of seconds he is in possession of the ball. Once the goalkeeper has released the ball, the referee must take a suitable position for controlling the match.
- iv. The goalkeeper may not throw the ball over mid court in the air.
- v. The goalkeeper may not punt or dropkick the ball to put the ball back into play.

b. Goal Clearance

- i. The ball is thrown from any point inside the penalty area by the goalkeeper of the defending team
- ii. The goalkeeper of the defending team takes the goal clearance within four seconds of being ready to do so
