Second Goal Parent Workshops

Please join us for a night of development where parents & athletes will...

- Learn how to help their athletes get the most from the youth sports experience
- Learn how to help coaches and leaders establish and maintain a positive competitive environment inside youth sports
- Develop skills to manage failure on and off the field
- Understand how to help your athlete be the best version of themselves and compete with integrity

Icons of Sport Agree With PCA

PCA provides thousands of resources curated by our National Advisory Board members all in one place at PCADevZone.org. Check out the video below for some great content to prepare for your workshop!

-Curtis Granderson on his Youth Sports Experience

RBI and Major League Baseball have partnered with Positive Coaching Alliance in an effort to further the common goal of creating Better Athletes & Better People through baseball and softball. PCA gains support from a National Advisory Board, including MLB managers Dusty Baker, Bruce Bochy, AJ Hinch, Brad Ausmus and Jerry Manuel, along with many other top coaches, athletes, organization leaders and academics who share PCA's mission
