Macie is from New Orleans, Louisiana. She has played volleyball since she was 5 where she started playing club at Blue Crab, an organization located in New Orleans. She also played for Louisiana Volleyball located in Baton Rouge her junior and senior year. She went to Ursuline Academy where she also played volleyball from middle school to high school. She is the only player at Ursuline to make All-State for four years. Macie continued her volleyball career at University of Louisiana. She has always been a verbal leader on the court and wants to bring that into her coaching experience. John Wooden once said, "A good coach can change a game, a great coach can change a life." Her goal is to not only make every player the best they can be and hopefully continue their game to college, but to inspire them to be the best person they can be in the future.
