

Critical Thinking and Discussion Questions

Why do we have any limits on Free Speech?

Should HS students or teenagers have the same free speech rights as college students or adults?

Should college students have the same free speech rights on campus as they do off campus?

Should high school students have the same free speech rights on campus as they do off campus?

Do you agree with the current limits on Free Speech?

How do you think Free Speech rights ought to be enforced?

How do you think Free Speech violations ought to be punished?

What do you think should happen to people who interfere with the Free Speech rights of others?

Do you agree with the community guidelines on social media sites?

Do community guidelines on social media sites restrict people's free speech rights?

What would happen if we decided conflicts using force instead of speech?

Should "might make right?"

Does any person know for sure that his or her ideas are right and above being challenged?

Should a person who thinks his/her ideas are right attempt to use force to make others "agree?"

Does force ever convince a person to agree with another's ideas?

What happens in a society when it is legal for the government has the right to shut down views it doesn't like?

Why do you think the Supreme Court established the 5 exceptions to Free Speech?

What other exceptions to Free Speech do some people want to see? Why do you think the Supreme Court has rejected those other exceptions to Free Speech?