

Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) Disclosures

Last Updated: June 2026

1. Service / Non-Marketing Communications Consent

By checking this box and providing my telephone number, I authorize Odola Inc. and parties acting on its behalf, including service providers, SMS platforms, and contact centers, to contact me at the telephone number I provide, including any wireless or mobile number, for non-marketing purposes. Contact may be made by telephone call, SMS/MMS text message, artificial or prerecorded voice message, automatic telephone dialing system, automated dialing system, or other automated technology. Non-marketing purposes may include identity verification, multi-factor authentication, account notices, application updates, service-related messages, customer-support communications, fraud-prevention and security alerts, transaction or operational notices, reminders, and other account-related communications. These communications will not include marketing, advertising, sales, solicitation, or promotional content unless I have separately consented to marketing communications. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help and STOP to stop text messages. I confirm that I am the subscriber or customary user of the telephone number provided and that I have authority to provide this consent. I may revoke this consent at any time by any reasonable method that clearly expresses my desire not to receive further calls or texts. For text messages, I may reply STOP, QUIT, END, REVOKE, OPT OUT, CANCEL, or UNSUBSCRIBE. I may also revoke consent through the Odola mobile app or by contacting Odola customer support. Revoking consent may affect Odola's ability to provide certain service-related notices by call or text.

☐ I consent to receive service-related phone calls and text messages from Odola about my account, application, services, and other non-marketing matters.

2. Marketing / Promotional Communications Consent

By checking this box and providing my telephone number, I sign this agreement electronically and provide my prior express written consent for Odola Inc. and parties acting on its behalf, including service providers, SMS platforms, and contact centers, to deliver, or cause to be delivered, marketing, advertising, promotional, sales, and customer-acquisition communications to the telephone number I provide, including any wireless or mobile number. These communications may be made by telephone call, SMS/MMS text message, artificial or prerecorded voice message, automatic telephone dialing system, automated dialing system, or other automated technology. I am not required to sign this agreement, provide this consent, or agree to receive marketing or promotional calls or text messages as a condition of purchasing any property, goods, or services from Odola, applying for services, opening or maintaining an account, or using Odola's services. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help and STOP to stop text messages. I confirm that I am the subscriber or customary user of the telephone number provided and that I have authority to provide this consent. I may revoke this consent at any time by any reasonable method that clearly expresses my desire not to receive further calls or texts. For text messages, I may reply STOP, QUIT, END, REVOKE, OPT OUT, CANCEL, or UNSUBSCRIBE. I may also revoke consent through the Odola mobile app or by contacting Odola customer support.

☐ I agree to receive marketing and promotional calls and text messages from Odola. My consent is not required as a condition of purchase, application, account opening, or use of Odola services.