

JOE'S Live

EXPERIENCE

Located just outside of Chicago in Rosemont, Joe's Live is an ACM award-winning live music venue and event space that hosts weekly lineups of acts from around the nation, including country music's biggest names, up-and-comers, local talent, DJs and more. Joe's Live occupies two-thirds of a 35,000 square foot space, sharing it with Southern BBQ restaurant Bub City via massive garage doors that open up to combine the two spaces for special events. The two concepts are a collaboration with the partners behind downtown Chicago's Bub City; ACM award-winning Joe's on Weed Street; and the Midwest's premier BBQ, country music and craft beer festival, Windy City Smokeout.

MUSIC

Experience live music several nights of the week on the 42-foot long stage, complete with state-of-the-art sound and lighting and professional production technicians. Three-time ACM Promoter of the Year and Joe's Live partner, Ed Warm, is responsible for booking all the musical talent which has included big names like Kip Moore, Cole Swindell and Old Dominion as well as local favorites including Sixteen Candles and Boy Band Night.

SPACE

Occupying more than 20,000 square feet, the main area at Joe's Live can hold an audience of up to 1,500 concertgoers. Overlooking the main stage are private VIP suites and an upper-level main balcony. In addition, Joe's Live boasts a massive 23-foot tall movie screen and 26 flat-screen televisions to broadcast live sports.

5441 Park Place
Rosemont, IL 60018
847-261-0392
joesliverosemont.com

