

CUISINE

Bub City is a Southern barbecue restaurant led by Pitmaster Tim Cottini that offers the best of slow-cooked American meats - from 18-Hour Smoked Prime Brisket and Carolina Pulled Pork to Chicago-Style Baby Back Ribs - plus fried pickles, griddled burgers and more. The spot serves up a BBQ Brunch that boasts plenty of weekend breakfast staples like Fried Chicken & Waffles, Brisket Benedict and Fried Chicken Biscuits. Bub City is open for lunch, dinner, weekend brunch and late-night dining, plus offers large-format carry-out, delivery and catering to take care of any party needs.

BEVERAGE

Bub City has cultivated one of the largest whiskey collections in Chicago, with a 150-plus bottle list of bourbon, rye and American whiskeys, as well as a selection of Bub City single-barrels, craft brands and rare, hard-to-find expressions from well-known and independent distilleries throughout the country. In addition to whiskey flights and a selection of bottled and draft beers, guests can sip on a variety of seasonal, Southern-inspired cocktails.
