

BURRATA LASAGNA

INGREDIENTS

- 1 (22-28 oz.) jar of homemade or store-bought marinara sauce, plus more for serving
- 5 sheets fresh pasta dough or 1 package store-bought lasagna noodles
- 5 cups bolognese sauce or 2 jars store-bought bolognese
- 5 cups asiago cream
- 5 cups shredded fontina cheese
- 8 ounces fresh burrata, such as Di Stefano brand

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 375°F. In a 4-inch deep casserole dish, evenly spread a thin layer of marinara sauce on the bottom.
2. Place 1 sheet of pasta on top, then evenly spread 1 cup of bolognese.
3. Using a piping bag, pipe approximately 1/5 of the asiago cream over the bolognese; sprinkle with 1 cup fontina cheese.
4. Repeat the process 4 more times, ending with the fontina cheese, to create 5 layers in total.
5. Cover the pan with plastic wrap, then wrap with aluminum foil. Bake the lasagna in the oven for 45 minutes.
6. Remove from the oven and discard foil and plastic wrap. Turn on the oven's broiler.
7. Tear the burrata into medium pieces and evenly distribute over the lasagna.
8. Broil the lasagna, ensuring that it does not burn, until the burrata is melty and golden brown, about 3-5 minutes. Let cool slightly before serving.
9. To serve, warm up marinara sauce and spread on each plate before topping with a generous portion of Burrata Lasagna. Serve with a glass of Chianti while listening to Frank Sinatra.

FRESH PASTA DOUGH

Makes 5 full pasta sheets

INGREDIENTS

- 3 cups King Arthur “00” (double-zero) fine flour, plus more as needed.
- 3 egg yolks
- water

METHOD

1. Place the flour in a mound on a clean work surface or in a medium bowl, making a well in the center. Add egg yolks, lightly breaking them up.
2. Using your fingers or a fork, gently stir the yolks from the middle of the well outwards, gradually adding more flour bit by bit into the egg.
3. Add water as needed to form a dough that just comes together and is not too sticky nor too dry.
4. Form dough into a ball and knead on a lightly floured work surface, adding more flour as needed. Continue kneading until dough is smooth and shiny, about 5-10 minutes.
5. Wrap dough in a plastic wrap and let rest at room temperature for at least 30 minutes (up to 1 hour).
6. Sprinkle the work surface with more flour. Divide the pasta in 5 equal pieces. Using a rolling pin or pasta machine, roll out each piece of dough into 1/8 inch thick sheets of the same size. Trim each sheet to fit your lasagna pan.

Tip: Cover each sheet of pasta with a slightly damp paper towel until ready to use so it doesn't dry out

BOLOGNESE SAUCE

Makes 8 cups

INGREDIENTS

- 3 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 lbs. ground prime beef
- 4 oz. (1 stick) unsalted butter, cubed
- 2 carrots, peeled and finely chopped
- 1 large yellow onion, finely chopped
- 5 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- 2 teaspoons fresh rosemary, finely chopped
- kosher salt and fresh ground black pepper
- 2 (28 oz.) cans crushed tomatoes with juices (preferably Alta Cucina brand)
- ½ cup tomato paste

METHOD

1. Heat olive oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add ground beef and cook, breaking up meat, until lightly caramelized, about 6-8 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, removed beef from pot; reserve. Wipe out the pot.
2. Add butter, carrots, onion and garlic to pot; cook until onion is translucent, about 8 minutes. Stir in rosemary and reserved beef; season with salt and black pepper.
3. Pour in crushed tomatoes and stir to combine. Bring to a rapid simmer and cook 10 minutes.
4. Add tomato paste and bring to a boil. Reduce heat; cook, stirring occasionally until thickened, about 20 minutes.
5. Remove from heat; season to taste with salt and black pepper. Let cool and reserve for assembling the lasagna.

Tip: Make another meal! Since the lasagna recipe calls for only 5 cups of bolognese sauce, toss the remaining 3 cups with cooked pasta or potato gnocchi, then top with Pecorino and chopped flat-leaf parsley for a filling second dish.

ASIAGO CREAM

Makes 8 cups

INGREDIENTS

- 4 cups (1 quart) heavy whipping cream
- 4 cups (16 oz.) shredded asiago cheese
- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded parmesan cheese
- 4 ounces (1 stick) unsalted butter
- 1 tbsp. finely chopped garlic
- 1 tsp. kosher salt
- 1 tsp. freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. In a large saucepan, bring the cream to a boil over medium-high heat.
2. Add in the asiago and parmesan cheese, butter, garlic, salt, and pepper. Whisk vigorously over medium-low heat until the ingredients are fully incorporated and smooth.
3. Remove from heat. Let cool to thicken before assembling the lasagna.

Tip: No piping bag? No problem! Use a gallon-size resealable plastic bag with the tip cut off in place of a pastry bag.
