

Little Passports®

BACK TO SCHOOL

Printable Lunchbox Notes for Kids

Cut out notes and place one in your child's lunchbox ✂

How do you know elephants love to travel?

Answer: I always see them with a trunk!

Little Passports

FUN FACT:

The Japanese name for Japan is "Nihon," which means "the sun's origin."

Flag of Japan

Nihon

Little Passports

Do you want to tell someone "I love you" in Spanish?

Just say "te amo!" (tay ah-mo)

Little Passports

Did you know some countries have more than one capital?

South Africa has 3: Cape Town, Bloemfontein and Pretoria.

Flag of South Africa

Little Passports

Lunch is different around the world!

In France, the school lunch is served in 3 courses. Bon appetit!

Little Passports

If you're ever in Portugal or Brazil, you can say "Thank you" by telling someone "obrigado." (oh bree gah-do)

Little Passports

FUN FACT: There are nine times more sheep in New Zealand than people!

Little Passports

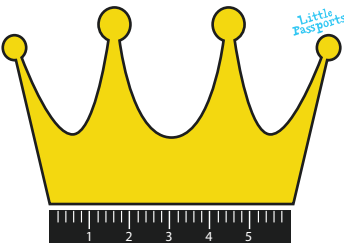

If you went to school in Spain, your lunch break might be up to three hours long!

Students take a long lunch and siesta (nap) then stay in class til 5pm.

Little Passports

What school supply is the queen of the classroom?

Answer: The ruler!

Little Passports

You mean the world to me!

Little Passports